

Young Scientists Forum (YSF) Thematic E-Publication - Calling for Book Chapters

The Young Scientists Forum (YSF) is one of the consultative fora established by the National Science and Technology Commission (NASTEC) to engage with young scientists on matters pertaining to improvement of Science, Technology and Innovation sectors in Sri Lanka.

The YSF is in the process of publishing the 2nd thematic chapter e-book as one of its key activities in 2022 (YSF 1st thematic e-publication can be accessed via this link: http://www.nastec.gov.lk/files/ysf/ysf_publication/ysf_chapter_ebook_environment_sustainability_and_food_safety.pdf). The aim of this thematic publication is to provide a comprehensive outlook on how different sectors could work together to seek solutions for the economic crisis prevailing in the country.

Topic of the E-book: Multisectoral Approaches to Accelerate Economic Transformation in the Face of Crisis in Sri Lanka

YSF is pleased to invite book chapters for sectors as per given in the attached flyer. Please send your book chapter outlines as per attached format to Dr. Samantha Dissanayake samanthad@agri.pdn.ac.lk or dissanayakuop@yahoo.com on or before 15th August 2022.
